What is WITS?

WITS is an acronym for Wesleyan IT Students

WITS are NWU students that have the desire and ability to help other students and faculty with a broad range of tasks from printing assistance to troubleshooting multi-media classroom equipment.

Wesleyan IT Students also spearhead a variety of initiatives focused on the improvement of campus facilities and computing habits. Additionally, WITS teams up with faculty members to develop and use new technologies in the classroom.

What WITS Can Do For You!

Wesleyan IT Students will try to help you with any project or task that requires the use of technology.

Digital Media

- Web design
- Working with print media
- Video recording and editing

Lab Assistance

- Learning how to use software
- Help with using printers and scanners
- Answering questions in computer labs

Troubleshooting

- Printer troubleshooting
- Digital device operations
- Fixing classroom technology
- Various software applications

Employment

Are you looking for a great campus job?

Work with innovative hardware and software such as:

- Virtual Reality
- Swivl Recorders
- Media editing applications

Maintain NWU's tech-based facilities and equipment:

- NWU classrooms
- On-campus educational event set-up
- General Use Computer Labs in Olin and the Library

Be a technology consultant and trainer:

- Lead technology workshops
- Provide support in computer labs
- Assist teachers/students with technology based classroom activities

But what if I'm not "techy?"

We do not expect you to know everything! You just need to have an interest in technology and a willingness to learn and help others.

Wesleyan IT Students are encouraged to explore and expand their technological knowledge so you don't need much experience to start. You gain experience as you learn!
